Bishops United Urges Assault Weapons Ban, Prayers of Lamentation

The Rev. Canon Carol Cole Flanagan
Interim Rector

From the Diocesan office of The Rt. Rev. Shannon S. Johnston, charter member of the group, Bishops United Against Gun Violence:

The heart of our nation has been broken yet again by another mass shooting at an American school. We offer our deepest condolences to the families and loved ones of those who were murdered at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida. We mourn with particular sorrow Carmen Schentrup, a 16-year-old student at the school and leader in the youth group at St. Mary Magdalene Episcopal Church in Coral Springs, who died at the hands of the gunman. We pledge to work with the Episcopal Diocese of Southeast Florida to lend whatever material and spiritual comfort we can to all those who have suffered such a devastating loss.

The phrase "thoughts and prayers" has been devalued by politicians whose prayers seem never to move them to act against their self-interests or the interests of the National Rifle Association. Yet, as Christians, we believe deeply in the power of prayer to console, to sustain and to heal, but also to make evident the work that God is calling us to do. We pray that all who have been touched by this violent act receive God's healing and solace.

In the wake of this massacre, we believe God is calling us to understand that we must not simply identify the social and political impediments to ending these lethal spasms of violence in our country. We must reflect on and acknowledge our own complicity in the unjust systems that facilitate so many deaths, and, in accordance with the keeping of a holy Lent, to repent and make reparations.

Specifically, we ask you, members of our church and those who ally yourselves with us, to:

- Contact your elected representatives and ask them to support legislation banning assault weapons such as the AR-15, which is the gun used in most of the recent mass shootings in our country; high-capacity magazines; and bump stocks, the equipment used by the killer in the Las Vegas massacre that allows semiautomatic weapons to fire dozens of rounds in seconds. We understand that mass shootings account for a small percentage of the victims of gun violence; that far more people are killed by handguns than by any kind of rifle; that poverty, misogyny, and racism contribute mightily to the violence in our society; and that soaring rates of suicide remain a great unaddressed social challenge. And yet, the problem of gun violence is complex, and we must sometimes address it in small pieces if it is not to overwhelm us. So, please, call your members of Congress and insist that your voice be heard above those of the National Rifle Association's lobbyists.

- Participate in a service of a lamentation for the victims of the Parkland shooting and all victims of lethal gun violence. We will be announcing a schedule of such services at churches around the country in the near future. To keep up with these plans, please follow our Facebook page Episcopalians Against Gun Violence.
- Enter into a period of discernment with us about how, through prayer, advocacy and action, we can make clear to our elected representatives that they must vote in the interests of all Americans, including law-abiding gun owners, in passing life-saving, common sense gun policies. Visit our website to learn more about our work and how to reach us. And if you plan to attend this summer's General Convention in Austin, Texas, plan to join us each morning for prayer outside the convention hall and to attend the Bishops United Against Gun Violence public witness on Sunday, July 8 at 9 a.m.

Two years after the shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary that took the life of Ben Wheeler, an active young member of Trinity Episcopal Church in Newtown, Connecticut, his father, David, asked parents to look at their children and then ask themselves, "Am I doing everything I can to keep them safe? Because the answer to that question, if we all answer honestly, clearly is no." In memory of Carmen and Ben and all of God's children lost to senseless gun violence, may God give us grace and fortitude in our witness so that we can, at last, answer yes.

Vestry Highlights - January 2017

The Vestry met for a retreat in January. We welcomed new members. Vestry officers are Camille Mittelholtz, Senior Warden; Jack Miller, Junior Warden; Alan Phillips, Assistant Junior Warden; and Sarah Kiely, Register.

Adult Forum

In the Ash Wednesday Liturgy we are invited "...in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word." In our Lenten Forums this year we will hear about and share ideas about how we enter into the active nature of Lent.

February 18 - Lent 1 The Rev. Canon Carol Cole Flanagan, our interim rector is the speaker. Questions to be addressed include: Why Lent? What did this season come from? Why do we embrace some of the customary practices of the season?

February 25 – Lent 2 Conversation with the Rt. Rev. David Colin Jones.

March 4 – Lent 3 The Rev. Betty Dunlop will be speaking on Reading and Meditating on God's holy Word, inviting us to discuss three questions, in light of what we read and meditate upon: 1) What is God like? 2) How does God want to relate to us? 3) How can we know?

March 11 – Lent 4 Jennifer Henry tells us about her talk:

"Does Self-Examination tempt you to list your sins? And Repentance, endeavoring not to do those things? I will show you another way, aided by a prayer which St. Ignatius of Loyola called the Examen. Ignatius thought this prayer so important that he said that if you only have time for one prayer, make it this one."

March 18 – Lent 5 Our speaker, the Rev. Dr. Tony Lewis, retired professor of New Testament at the Virginia Theological Seminary, asks this question:

"Is there a pattern for Christian spiritual discipline that is useful for us to follow in attempting to keep a "holy Lent?" (BCP 265) The three hallmarks mentioned in the Prayer Book—prayer, fasting and self-denial—mirror the "Sermon on the Mount" in Matthew's gospel, where Jesus teaches his disciples about religious piety. In his teaching, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are not optional, but are expected (not "IF you fast..." but "WHEN you fast..."). The power of the teaching of Jesus is to move his followers beyond the "WHAT" of piety to the "HOW" one practices kingdom living. In that view MOTIVATION becomes crucial.

Consider Contributing With Your Required Minimum Distribution

by Robin Erskine

Since the new standard deduction has been raised to $24,000, it might make sense to make your RMD payable directly to St. Barnabas' or another qualified charity of your choice.

Some of us are of the age, over 70 and ½, where we must take a Required Minimum Distribution from our IRA or 401(k), better known as our "RMD." If you are in this category, you might examine the potential tax advantages of sending your RMD directly to St. Barnabas' as your annual pledge. If you choose to do this, you won't be able to deduct, as an Itemized Deduction, a charitable contribution for this amount, but neither will this distribution be included in your Adjusted Gross Income.

Lowering your Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) may give you some measurable tax savings. By lowering your AGI you also lower the threshold for claiming Medical Expenses thereby raising your Medical Deductions and perhaps giving you some tax savings. There are other advantages for high income taxpayers who might wish to contact their tax advisor for further information

If you choose to have your financial institution send your distribution to St. Barnabas' or another charity, they may accomplish this any time during the year as long as it is before the end of the calendar year, December 31, 2018.

You must send your distribution directly to your charity and avoid receiving it yourself. Otherwise it would be taxed as ordinary income and any tax advantage would be lost.

Arranging Flowers for Sacred Spaces by Anne Radway

I spent two days in early February participating in a class hosted by the Flower Guild of the National Cathedral. This is a 100-member volunteer group headed by a paid coordinator that works in rotating teams of twenty to arrange, place and (most importantly) water the various arrangements in the Cathedral. These arrangements range from ones that may be as tall as a person and are on the high altar to small arrangements for the children's chapel. Special events such as weddings and funerals, especially state funerals, are also the purview of the Flower Guild.

The two-day class was packed with demonstrations and practical advice for creating the different types of arrangements that the Flower Guild produces: altar pieces and other arrangements; wreaths; garlands; handheld bouquets. The class, which is given only once a year just before the beginning of Lent, was very intense, with at times two or three demonstrations going on at the same time. After a brief lunch, each participant was to make arrangements similar to those that had been explained in the morning.

We made a classic arrangement in a vase that would be suitable for an altar piece the first day, and the next day, a garden consisting of two symmetrical rectangular arrangements with a potted plant as the focal point. Even though we all had the same materials, the variety produced was amazing. This was also an excellent way to meet women (as there were no men in the class) from the area who are also making floral arrangements for their own churches. There were even three participants who had driven from Georgia, and three who had flown in from Oregon. It was a wonderful experience. I only hope that I will be able to produce arrangements of similar beauty for St. Barnabas'.

Good Friday Offering to Support Ministry in Anglican Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East

See below the letter from Presiding Bishop Michael Curry to congregations throughout the communion. Customarily, the Good Friday offering is sent to the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East. Please be generous this March 30th as we remember and renew our support of our Christian brothers and sisters in the Middle East.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I greet you in the Name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

I am writing to you in preparation for Holy Week and the focus of that week on our Lord's sacrificial offering of love on the cross.

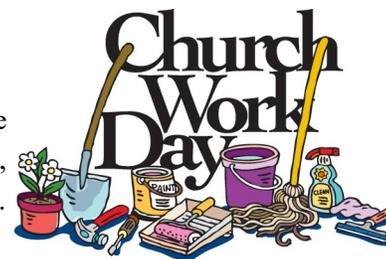

The Good Friday Offering is one way we in the Episcopal Church help to support the ongoing ministry of love and compassion carried out by our Anglican sisters and brothers throughout the Province of Jerusalem and Middle East.

Whether funding an eye clinic in Aden or women's programs, schools and medical services in the West Bank, the Good Friday Offering is making a difference in the lives of so many. I believe our partnership with those who keep the faith of Jesus alive in the region where our Lord walked and began his movement is a significant aspect of our work as part of the church catholic.

The Most Rev. Michael Curry, Presiding Bishop and Primate, The Episcopal Church

The Women of St. Barnabas'

The Women of St. Barnabas are pleased to announce that the total intake of our 2017 Christmas Bazaar is $5033.75. We want to thank all those who came to the events, bought our crafts, baked goods, and jewelry, and bought from our artists. We also thank those who made donations. We depend on the generous support of the members of our church to fund our inreach and outreach programs. We give all our money away, and we will post our Spring Budget when it is finished. However, it is not just to raise money for good works that we meet. We enjoy the fellowship and the creativity of one another, and lasting friendships develop.

We have a few people we want to thank especially for helping us with the bazaar: George Sinclair, Frank Spink, Ken Mittelholtz, and John Otwell.
