Parish Announcements

Offering of Food

Do you go grocery shopping every week? You can shop for the hungry then, too! Pick up an item or two (canned goods and non-perishable foods) and bring them to church every Sunday. At the time of the offering, all of our gifts will be presented at the altar.

Education for Ministry

Education for Ministry (EfM) starts a new class this September. If you are interested in learning more about church history, culture, and theology in the company of other "inquiring minds," please contact EfM mentor Janie Brooks at 703-566-9824.

Give a Ride, Take a Ride Program

St. Barnabas' offers a Give a Ride, Take a Ride Program to provide opportunities to have more participants join us to worship together on Sundays. I will need information on those willing to give a ride and for those needing rides. You can contact Al Kanu or Geraldine Williams at your convenience at 703-854-1135 or by email at akanu@nvcc.edu. Thanks in advance for your time and consideration. -- Al Kanu

Thank You for Prayers

Dear fellow parishioners: Cousin Zaira has been removed from the prayer list. She has recovered from her very serious illness. Thank all of you for your prayers for her recovery. May God bless and keep all of you. - Mark & Colleen Zanin and Zaira

Annandale Safe Youth Project

We are finishing our 4th summer and have had a very good program. There has been a regular group of about 10-12 kids who have come all summer, mostly boys. Field trips have kept us on the road a lot, but some activities were cancelled due to extreme heat. School supplies are being given out now and we expect to start the new school year with about 5 kids. Several students continue to face great difficulty and we have one family that will be homeless at the end of the month. The mom has also just lost her job and the student will be starting at Poe school. Antonia and Jade will both be going forward with the program this fall, to our great delight. They are a terrific pair of young women! I would also like to thank all of the ASYP volunteers who make this program so great. Thank you Robin Holmes, Steve Leatherwood, Jack Miller, Harvey Sawatis, Larry Fickau and MaryAlan Beckley for your dedication to the kids. We will be having a big celebration for the start of our 5th year, probably Sept 30th. Hopefully Monnie Riggin and Phyllis Hatch will be able to come.

Food for Others

The Annandale Neighborhood Food Site is the place to be on Thursday evenings! We had 56 people sign in for food on August 19, our biggest crowd to date. It really keeps us busy to serve that many people, and supplemental food is so important. Your support is critical. Jessica, Andrew and Jordan Riddle have been regular helpers. Robin Holmes is always there, and we will certainly miss her granddaughter Caroline, who is going away to school. Alan Phillips helps regularly and, with the bigger crowds, is a great help out front. Fairfax County is trying to come up with information on what services are being provided by private groups and develop a list of corporations making donations to the county. They are trying to better coordinate their services and requests to corporations for help. Our area (Annandale inside the Beltway) shows a 64% increase in requests for food this past year and I expect that to continue. Join the excitement and be part of the "in" crowd, share a little food, recycle your grocery bags. We do it all! -- Ann Woodle, 703-425-5631

Fall Bazaar Bake Sale

Please set aside jams, jellies, and chutneys made over the summer. Also, please consider a donation of homemade cookies, cakes, pies, or breads. Our wonderful goodies are always a big hit at the Annual Bazaar. The bazaar dates this year are Friday evening, November 12, and Saturday morning, November 13.

Greeting Cards for Prison Ministry

Last Sunday I delivered several bags full of unused greeting cards to Pat Marks, who collects them for the use of women incarcerated in the two local Virginia prisons for women. She expressed her gratitude to the members of St. Barnabas' for their generosity. Pat will be leaving the area in October as she has become a Peace Corps Volunteer and will be going to Samoa to work with preschool education and community development. She said that the stamp and greeting card mission will continue under another coordinator, who as yet has not been named, so please keep them coming! I will continue to collect greeting cards and unused postage stamps as well as magazines and paperback books, which are for a literacy project also in the prison system. Thanks again for contributing to these two important projects. -- Anne Radway.

Annandale Fall Festival

On October 23, Annandale will hold its annual Fall Festival from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. St. Barnabas' will participate in the parade and will also sponsor an information booth. Please sign up to march in the parade, staff the booth, or provide baked goods for the booth. We will also be selling St. Barnabas' shirts to offset costs and otherwise support our newcomers effort. Sign-up sheets will be posted on the bulletin board. Please contact Mark Zanin (703-425-8176) or Charles Brock (703-941-2922) for further information.

TGIF Potluck Dinners

TGIF Potluck Dinners are a St. Barnabas' tradition and also lots of fun! We need sponsors to host these events. There are currently openings for the months of October, November and December for this year. Please sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board in the Richardson Room if you would like to host one of these events. Please contact Mark Zanin (703-425-8176) if you would like additional information.
