The Rev. Canon Carol Cole Flanagan
Interim Rector

As you know, this year we have attempted to renew the involvement of our children in our stewardship initiative because it is so important to their Christian formation. In the archives we found the following drawings and reflections from a previous generation of St. Barnabas' children, most of whom are heading into adulthood. It is impressive. We pray that they are well on their way to becoming the generous and compassionate people we glimpse here, and that their words inspire us for our ministry with today's young people.

Grace and Peace,
Carol+

Vestry Highlights - September 2017

Much of the time during the September meeting was spent drafting a Vestry Statement on Stewardship. After reading and deliberating on Matthew 6:24-33 (No man can serve two masters...) we split into three groups to compose statements on what we believe, commit to, and invite the congregation to do for Stewardship.

The kick-off date for the Campaign will be October 8; Ingathering will be October 15.

One of the features of this year's Campaign will be working toward modeling and teaching Stewardship practices to our children and youth, including regular giving, which will include providing donation envelopes to Church School members.

Other business included a report from the Finance Committee on the review of the restricted accounts of the Church, with a goal of consolidating or closing those funds which no longer are active. The Finance Committee also is planning a revision of the 2017 annual budget to reflect changes to the anticipated income and spending.

What's in a Name?

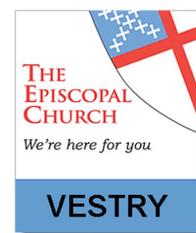

Suggestions were submitted and reviewed. It was a tough decision, but John Otwell (see article on p. 6) has decided that the courtyard area between the front of the building and the Education Wing will be the Peace Patio. Congratulations to Grace Robbins and Lyn Harris, who both made the suggestion.

Other suggestions included The Cloister Garth (the garth garden was a symbolic area of the medieval monastery cloister), God With Us Garden, Courtyard, Community Courtyard, Fellowship Court, Courtyard of Kindred Souls, St. Martha's Yard (think of Martha's quiet and unassuming service, the patron saint of servants and cooks), St. Barnabas' Bistro, and Michael McAllister Courtyard (honoring Michael and others who died in a plane crash in 1961).

Thank you to everyone who made a suggestion, and to Senior Warden Mark Patterson and all those who have worked to make the area both relaxing and beautiful! See you on the Peace Patio!

ACCA News—Annandale Christian Community for Action

Past and present ACCA volunteers and ACCA Child Development Center (CDC) staff celebrated ACCA's 50 years of service to our neighbors October 3 at Queen of Apostles Catholic Church. ACCA was formed in 1967 to respond to an urgent need for day care for children who were left without affordable day care when income requirements for subsidies changed.

St. Barnabas' has been involved in ACCA since the beginning. The Reverend Bob Lyles was one of the early clergy supporters, and Janet George and Karen Steidel were early volunteers at the day care center. Since the early days, many St. Barnabas' volunteers have served a number of ACCA programs including furniture delivery, Christmas in April/Rebuilding Together, food donation and delivery, transportation to medical appointments, the CROP Walk, and laundering cot and crib sheets for the CDC. Sue Erskine was a long time employee of the CDC, and Judy Falkenrath was the CDC director for a number of years. Also, Fred and Wanda Warren volunteered for ACCA for many years as members of Immanuel United Methodist Church.

St. Barnabas' ministry with ACCA continues strong. We are scheduled to volunteer at the ACCA furniture ministry on December 2. Volunteers report at 8 am to the furniture warehouse at Annandale United Methodist Church, 6935 Columbia Pike. Volunteers pick up donations and deliver furniture to needy households.

The Annandale CROP Hunger Walk that was held October 14 at Lake Accotink Park raised much-needed funds for the food pantry. Thanks to our walkers Michael Dugger, Bob & Connie Gribbin, Fred & Wanda Warren, and Dana Wiseman. Thanks also to volunteers Bonnie Baldwin, Elsa & Scott Cannon, and Ken & Camille Mittelholtz. The walk benefits both Church World Service (CWS), which funds programs for hunger, disaster and refugee relief and sustainable development and ACCA. It's not too late to contribute to this effort. To make a donation, please see Camille Mittelholtz or a walker. Checks can be made payable to CWS/CROP with Annandale/ACCA in the memo line.

The Holiday Baskets program connects families in need with sponsors who provide groceries for Thanksgiving and/or a Christmas meal and gifts for children. If you would like to sponsor a family, please contact Mary Lee Dispirito at ddmld@verizon.net, or Camille.

If you participate in a workplace giving campaign, please consider designating gifts to ACCA. ACCA's United Way designation code is 8058. ACCA's Combined Federal Campaign designation code is 58934.

The joint Shepherd's Center - ACCA transportation program provides rides to medical appointments. The program is seeking additional volunteer drivers.

November events-

- ACCA volunteer luncheon, November 4, Noon at Providence Presbyterian Church.
- Scouting for Food Boy Scout drive, November 11, to collect food for ACCA's pantry.
- ACCA Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service, Tuesday November 21, 7:30 p.m., at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, 6477 Lincolnia Rd., Alexandria 22312.

The Backbone of St. Barnabas' : Interview With John Otwell

by Grace Robbins

If each one of us is a member of the body of Christ, then John Otwell, sexton, is the backbone of St. Barnabas.' We had a chance to find out a little more about this essential gifted and devoted member of our community.

Q: Where are you from?

A: I was born in Atlanta, Ga. We relocated to Edsall Park in Springfield, Va., when I was around five years old.

Q: Do you have family close by? Pets?

A: I am the second of five boys (Jimmy, Johnny, Perry, Russell, and Bill) All my brothers live pretty close, from the Eastern Shore in Md., to Fredericksburg, Va. My parents live in Roanoke, Va. I don't have any pets at this time but have had everything from dogs to horses and even raised turkeys once.

Q: What do you like to do outside of work?

A: I enjoy outside activities mostly fishing.

Q: What led you to your current job/line of work?

A: I was told from early testing in school I was destined to be an engineer and found that I really enjoy fixing and building things. If it's broken and I can take it apart, I can put it back together and make it work.

Q: What do you like best about your job? St. Barnabas?

A: What I enjoy most about St. Barnabas is being part of the congregation, I can come to service and most of the congregation know my name and tell me they appreciate what I do for the church.

Complete these statements:

If I had more time in a day, I would...

John: Spend it on private meditation, while fishing.

My favorite form of worship is...

John: At the end of the day saying my private prayers, but I also enjoy Sunday service and meeting friends.

My mission statement for my

John: To make people smile.

Q: Anything else? (i.e., favorite music, poem, food, color; areas in which St. B. could improve; anything)

A: My favorite music is all over the charts and includes oldies, from Elvis, Righteous Brothers, and Dianna Ross to newer songs by Sara Bareillas, Mary J. Blige, Johnny Clegg and Savuka, Pink, and The Cure, to name a few. My favorite poem, is by Dylan Thomas, "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night." My favorite food is Chef Boyardee pizza and my favorite color is canary yellow. Finally, the thing I would do to improve St. Barnabas' would be to trim the tree in front to show more of the Church entrance. That's it! Peace.

Congratulations to Cindy McLaughlin, Alusine Kanu

Congratulations to Cindy McLaughlin for her recent recognition by Mary Marshall Assisted Living—Volunteers of America for her outstanding dedication and support. Cindy has served on their Board of Advisors since its inception in 2012/2011. The home is the first collaboration between a county and Volunteers of America. The home serves the mentally and/or cognitively impaired adults age 55 and older.

Congratulations also on Cindy's first successful term in a course of study on Substance Abuse Counseling with Northern Virginia Community College.

Congratulations to Dr. Alusine Kanu who recently completed all the requirements for a Doctoral degree in Pastoral Community Counseling, with a concentration in Multicultural Counseling.

Shrine Mont Parish Retreat

Transitions: Finding God in the In-Between Times

What a wonderful time we had at Shrine Mont this year! The weather was perfect, although it did get pretty chilly at night. Food at Shrine Mont is delicious and there was plenty of it.

The adults had four sessions led by our friend Jeremy Sullivan. He provided topics that were thought-provoking as well as spiritually uplifting

Friday pm: Promises Gone Awry: Living in the "Not Yet"

Saturday morning: Spirituality for People on the Journey

Saturday afternoon: When the Journey Gets Dark

After the second session, we had "free time" where we could relax, explore, attend the healing labyrinth walk led by Jeremy and/or the Yoga for Friends class led by Jocelyn Leatherwood. There was also an historical walk around Shrine Mont where the guide explained some of the history of the area as well as Shrine Mont itself.

Sunday afternoon: Lead Me, Guide Me: Walking with the God of the Journey

We were blessed to be able to join the members from St. Albans' and St. Clements' for the Holy Eucharist on Sunday morning at the Shrine. Having that special service at the Shrine was so uplifting. All of us felt closer to God in that place.

The children had a splendid program for the weekend led by Sydney Harrington, granddaughter of Kathleen and Larry Stark. They had a fun time. At the last session they showed off their decorated memory boxes that they had made so that they would have a special place to keep the important treasures from the weekend.

Next year, St. Barnabas' Parish Retreat is scheduled for Friday, September 28 through Sunday, September 30. Please save the date so that you will be able to join us. - Ann Sayles
